This is the third issue of the Anambra State Library and Information Science Digest. It is the Professional Journal of the Nigerian Library Association, Anambra State Chapter. The purposes of this journal are to publish peer reviewed articles, promote research, improve the practices of our profession and keep pace with the current ICT trend.

Eight articles are published in the 2009 edition and they deal with topical issues of interest to our profession.

The journal is growing rapidly and it is expected to be among the international journals that publish and disseminate professional, academic and research articles in Library and Information Science.

We congratulate the distinguished contributors, subscribers, readers and those that sent their comments and commendations to our journal.

We will yearly hit our publication stand with new edition of our journal.
